

25 Hotel Management Companies to Know in 2020

By LODGING Staff - May 8, 2020

The U.S. economy as a whole has changed drastically since the beginning of March, when LODGING started putting together its annual Guide to Management Companies. COVID-19 has majorly disrupted the hotel industry, leading to closed properties and millions of unemployed hospitality workers. When the industry rebounds, hoteliers will be looking to adjust to a new normal, and partnering with the right management company could help some hoteliers find the quickest path to recovery.

A note from the editor: Most of the materials for this guide were collected prior to the U.S. COVID-19 crisis.

The following list is in alphabetical order.

< | 6 - CoralTree Hospitality Group | >

CoralTree Hospitality Group

Terranea Resort in Rancho Palos Verdes, California

Colorado-based CoralTree Hospitality Group is a portfolio of lifestyle hotels and resorts in diverse locations offering distinctive facilities and services. The management company is committed to optimizing the value of every hotel through operations and memorable guest experiences. The goal of Coral Tree is to bring value to owners through property performance and culture. The company currently provides hospitality and assessment management services to hotels and resorts across the United States and Mexico with an emphasis on resort communities with urban, independent properties. The portfolio includes independent, branded, and soft-branded hotels and resorts.

| | |
|-------------------------------|--|
| Rooms Managed | 5,009 |
| Properties Managed | 21 |
| Third-Party Rooms | 5,009 |
| Third-Party Properties | 21 |
| Revenue | $379,374,957 |
| Contact | Nancy Kern — nkern@coralreehospitality.com |

< | 6 - CoralTree Hospitality Group | >

LODGING Staff

