

Ptarmigan Inn in Steamboat Springs to Reopens After $5 Million Comprehensive Renovation
Opening Rates Start at $175 a Night

Steamboat Springs, Colo. – Dec. 18, 2019 – The Ptarmigan Inn, Steamboat’s original ski in/ski out resort, reopened on Dec. 13 after a comprehensive $5 million renovation. The 77-room property, managed by CoralTree Hospitality, is offering rates starting at $175 per night to experience the newly upgraded hotel.

“This is an exciting new project for Steamboat,” said General Manager Ben Franko. “As one of Steamboat Ski Resort’s original ski-in/ski-out properties, we are giving guests another great reason to stay at the base of the mountain. And, with attractive early season rates, we are excited to showcase our newly refreshed property to travelers this winter.”

Ptarmigan Inn’s lobby has been transformed into a lively social gathering area featuring Ptom’s Brunch & Bar with beer and wine taps, as well as relaxed bar and lounge seating. Guests now can check-in at a new multi-purpose area that serves both as guest check-in and coffee bar with grab-n-go dining options. New meeting spaces also were created to host small groups, family events and other gatherings.

Guest rooms and suites were completely redesigned from carpets, window treatments and linens to beds, furnishings and lighting with modernized bathrooms. The renovation also includes new outdoor patios and pool area.

Ptom’s Brunch & Bar is a new dining concept that offers a creative twist on familiar fare, all made with locally curated ingredients. The all-day brunch menu features breakfast items such as homemade pop tarts, smoothies and goat cheese frittata, as well as pimento cheese deviled eggs or a BLT burger made with bacon jam for after a day of play on the mountain. Daily happy hour at Ptom’s features fireside and bar dining with selections such a bacon and blue cheese tots, all-you-can eat maple bacon popcorn, Swiss cheese fondue and signature cocktails.

Ptarmigan’s enhancements compliment some of the exciting changes at Steamboat this winter including the construction of the fastest gondola in North America, significantly reducing base area wait times. The new gondola will increase capacity up the mountain making it easier for guests staying at Ptarmigan to access Steamboat’s famous champagne powder.
