

CoralTree Hospitality to Manage The Islands of Islamorada

Company Adds Seventh Property in Florida

DENVER – October 15, 2024 – CoralTree Hospitality, one of the top independent hospitality companies in the United States, has been awarded management of The Islands of Islamorada resort in Florida. The gated, luxury enclave of 22 waterfront villas and eight, one-bedroom suites provides easy access to all that the Florida Keys have to offer. The resort is the seventh CoralTree property in Florida.

“The Islands of Islamorada is an impressive addition to our growing collection of hotels, resorts and residential properties,” said Tom Luersen, president of CoralTree Hospitality. “The resort offers a variety of personalized experiences centered around its distinctive location in the Florida Keys. The beachside, four-bedroom villas offer something truly rare for the discerning family looking for a luxury vacation destination.”

The Islands of Islamorada features spacious four-bedroom waterfront villas with kitchens and outdoor recreation space, as well as one-bedroom luxury hotel suites all with ocean views that offer the familiar comforts of home with the luxury of high-end hospitality. The resort includes its own private beach, two swimming pools, tiki lounge, a designated children’s play area, a marina, seaplane dock, watersports program, a fitness center, motion studio and pickleball courts. A dedicated concierge team can arrange for a variety of specially designed activities including private fishing charters providing unparalleled access to the ‘Sportfishing Capital of the World.’

The four-bedroom villas also are available for purchase with residential sales by Ocean Sotheby’s International Realty.

The resort is a 1.5-hour drive from Miami and can be easily accessed via boat or seaplane.

The Islands of Islamorada will be a part of the CoralTree Residence Collection, which includes vacation rental and residential resort management properties in some of the most desirable locations in the United States including Vail and Snowmass in Colorado as well as properties on three islands – Kauai, Hawaii Island, and Maui – in Hawaii. The CoralTree Residence Collection portfolio includes more than 1,040 residences and 26 homeowners associations under management.

The CoralTree Residence Collection prides itself on keeping personal hospitality in the guest experience by providing unparalleled vacation planning, front desk and concierge services, on-site leadership and more. The Residence Collection also provides owner care services including renovation management, accounting and financial services, maintenance and capital project oversight, marketing, distribution and pricing, housekeeping, asset management and procurement.
